

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 27. 1743.

Copenhagen, April 23.

It is impossible to enter with any Certainty into the Politicks of our Court, in which, such as pretend to be vers'd in them, say, there subsist at present three Parties; the First may be styled the English, since it is principally supported by the Minister of that Crown, who favours entirely pacifick Measures, and would have all our Differences with the Duke of Holstein adjust'd amicably; the Second is the French Party. These are for engaging us to act in favour of the Swedes, in virtue of a Treaty of Subsidy concluded with his most Christian Majesty, and subject to his Directions; with this additional Provision, that we shall not engage in any Treaty of the like Kind with any other Power, at least during the Continuance of the War in the North; but this Language is far from being agreeable to the Court at present. The Third is generally styled the Prince's Party; they are for embracing the Offer of the Peasants in Sweden, supporting a Scission in the Dyer, in case such a Thing should happen, and placing him on the Throne at all Events. It is generally conceived, that to favour this Project we have fitted out so great a Fleet, and that his Royal Highness is to sail on board the Charles VI. which is one of the finest Ships in Europe, and has been equipp'd since all the rest of the Squadron were ready to put to Sea. We have now 15 Sail of the Line of Battle, and 6 Frigates, ready to put to Sea on the first Order; but when that Order will come, is uncertain. There want not some, who suspect that this Fleet will never sail at all, and that our Monarch, who is allow'd to be one of the wisest in Europe, has nothing farther in View, than by making a Display of the Force of Denmark at this critical Juncture, to obtain a Satisfaction for his Claims both on Sweden and Holstein; and if this really be his Scheme, it is generally believed he will succeed, and it is even said, that a Treaty to this Purpose is already on Foot.

Vienna, April 18. The Court sees, with Contempt, the ridiculous Stories published in some foreign Gazettes, as to the March of the French Troops, and Seckendorff's Peasants, at a Time when it is very well known they have much a-do to subsist in their Quarters. Lieutenant Veldt Marshal Berenclaus march'd on the 14th, with a considerable Body of Horse and Foot, in order to open the Campaign on the Side of Saltzbourg; and it was with a View to facilitate his Expedition that Veldt Marshal Kevenhuller surprized the Post of Greisbach. His Serene Highness Prince Charles of Lorain, who set out for the Army on the 13th, had a Conference with the Veldt Marshal on the 15th at Lintz, and set out early the next Morning from thence for the Army of Prince Lobkowitz. About three Hours after his Highness's Departure, an Express from Prince Lobkowitz arrived in the Army of Marshal Kevenhuller, with Advice that a great Body of the Enemy, under the Command of Marshal Broglie in Person, were marching towards them; upon which a Detachment of 3 Battalions, and 16 Squadrons, was instantly sent to his Assistance. Her Majesty has been pleas'd to give the Command of her Forces in Tyrol, provisionally, to General Stentz, but has declined bestowing the other vacant Governments till the Close of the Campaign.

Berlin, April 23. Yesterday his Majesty, attended by Prince Henry, the Duke of Holstein Bick, and the Prince of Darmstadt, arriv'd here from Potsdam. It is said, that his Majesty intends shortly to make a grand Review; in order to which, Quarters are preparing in this Neighbourhood for 19 Regiments. After it is over, the Officers who have leave to serve in the Queen of Hungary's Army will set out for Vienna. The Reports that have been spread, in relation to our Court's entering into the Views of France, are absolutely void of all Foundation.

Dresden, April 21. Publick Prayers are made in the Royal Chapel for the safe Delivery of the Queen of the two Sicilies, who is now enter'd into the ninth Month of her Pregnancy. Count Maurice of Saxony is set out hence for the French Army, but it is absolutely uncertain whether he has or has not succeeded in his Commission. Count Harach made a Days stay here in his Way to Vienna, in which he conferr'd with their Majesties, dined with them, and was remarkably well received.

Dusseldorp, April 26. The French pursue with incredible Diligence their Design of forming an Army between Heidleberg and Heilbron, which they pretend, consists already of 55,000 Men. This Morning an Express arriv'd from Straubingen, with Advice, that a numerous Detachment of the French Army, in full March for Egra, had been attack'd by the Austrians near Amberg, and forc'd to retire with the Loss of some Hundred Men.

Paris, April 23. On the 17th and 19th there were held at Versailles two Councils of State, which sate, especially the last, much later than usual. In this, it is said, that some Resolutions were taken of the last Importance, as to the ensuing Campaign. The Marshal de Noailles was at Verdun on the 18th, at Metz on the 19th, where he is to stay two Days, and then he will proceed to Strasbourg, where a grand Council of War will be held, in order to take the final Resolution as to the attacking, or not attacking, the Queen of Hungary's Auxiliaries, which is vehemently press'd on one Side, and as vigorously oppos'd on the other; inasmuch that it is believed, that the Decision of this Question will fix our Councils for the future, and, perhaps, make Room for a new Ministry. There was one Thing very singular in the drawing our Militia. After a Man had drawn a black Lot, he was told, that if he could inform of any one who ought to have drawn, and had found Means to screen himself, he might yet be free.

Hague, April 30. Count Figuers, Privy Counsellor from the Council of Brabant, is arriv'd here lately from Brussels, in order to receive the Money due to her Hungarian Majesty on the Subsidy voted her last Year, and to press the speedy March of the 20,000 Men; and it is generally thought he will succeed in both Articles of his Commission. The French Minister not long ago intimated as much to a Person in the Administration here, and, at the same time, observ'd the Moderation with which his Court acted, tho' she was perfectly well inform'd of all these Transactions. But he was given to understand, that the Moderation of France proceeded solely from its present Views and Circumstances, and that if his Court took any brisker Measures, it might, possibly, produce a Succour to the Queen of Hungary of twice 20,000 Men. A Report has prevail'd here for some Days, that General Berenclaus had defeated a Body of Imperial Troops in the Archbishoprick of Saltzbourg, and that Veldt Marshal Seckendorff was assembling all his Forces, in order either to put a stop to his Progress, or to give him Battle.

The Universal Family MEDICINE,

Still more and more fam'd, after upwards of 20 Years
Success with the Publick,

Is sold by the Author's Appointment, by Mr. King, Printseller, in the Poultry, near the Royal Exchange; by Mr. Martin, at the Sign of the Duke of Cumberland, in Cranbourne Alley, near Leicester Fields; and by Mr. Hildyard, Bookseller in York, at 3 s. the Bottle Retail.

It is to be taken at any Season of the Year, and is so very agreeable to Young and Old, that Children take it without Trouble, a few Drops being a Dose; and so gentle, that it weakens not the most Aged: For it is a safe and effectual Alternative, so to be taken in a less Dose than where Purging is necessary, an Excellence inherent in this Medicine, which is a singular Property well known to the Learned, to be in some Cathartic Medicines.

It is in particular,

A Certain and infallible Cure for the SCURVY, tho' of the longest Standing, and attended with the most aggravated Circumstances (a Distemper so common to English People, that not one in a thousand is wholly exempt from it, and great Numbers are sorely afflicted with it) being a cordial Elixir, peculiarly adapted to that Disease in all its Forms of appearing, from the slightest itching Humour in the Blood, to its utmost or last Efforts on human Nature.

For it is a true Specifick Cordial, that perfectly cures that Distemper by gentle Evacuation, by Stool and Urine, the only sure and effectual Way perfectly to cure the Scurvy, and prevent Relapses (notwithstanding what may be dreamt to the contrary) the Truth of which is witnessed to daily, by the many Thousands that have taken this Medicine. It so powerfully rectifies the Blood and Juices, that scrophulous Cases are also speedily cured by it; and all Spots, Blotches, Pimples, &c. on the Skin, are quickly and entirely taken off, the Patients made lively and brisk, many chronick Diseases prevented, and a due State of Health secured.

It removes all Pain in the Stomach, helps Digestion, opens Obstructions, and is peculiarly serviceable to Maids inclined to, or troubled with the Green Sickness. 'Tis the best Medicine in the World to destroy Worms in Children or grown People, and prevent their Return; for it scours away all those ropy, viscid Humours which breed them in their Bowels, and is so well adapted to all Constitutions, that it is deservedly esteemed both in City and Country, the most general Family Medicine that ever was known to preserve Health, and hinder no Business or Recreation.

Good Allowance is given Wholesale by Mr. King for ready Money to Country Shopkeepers, &c. to sell again. This Medicine will keep many Years in any Climate.

The Directions given with it are large and full.
